

Together It's Possible

TOGETHER - LEARNING ALLY'S COMMUNITY NEWSLETTER

In this issue:

- Third Grader Shares Her Dyslexia Story
- How Teachers Use Tech
- Heading Back to School with Audiobooks
- 5 Quick Tips for Organizing IEP Binders

My Dyslexia Story

By nine-year-old student Holly

"I have read 27 books and 835 pages using Learning Ally. If you are reading this and you have dyslexia, just know that if you have special help, then you will be okay," says nine-year-old Holly. We're thrilled to have Holly share her inspiring dyslexia story with us in her own words.

Read Holly's story

How Teachers Use Tech Audiobooks in the classroom help students with dyslexia succeed

Teachers from around the country share how they're helping students with learning disabilities succeed.

Heading Back to School High-needs schools gain access to Learning Ally's audiobook library

The Shadow Project shares how audiobooks have helped their students: What happens when young readers find an unknown word in their book? If they're like 10-year-old Isaac, they skip it. Enter Learning Ally, the online audio library that enables children with disabilities to highlight and repeat unfamiliar words out loud. This school year, The Shadow Project is bringing audio libraries to eight high-needs schools.

Read full article

Save the Date for Spotlight Upcoming online dyslexia conference: Friday, December 4, 2015

Want a chance to win a FREE ticket to Spotlight on Dyslexia?

All you have to do is correctly guess the identity of our star keynote speaker. Submit your guess by Sept. 13 for a chance to win!

Join Log in

Donate today

Learning Ally is able to serve students because of the generosity of our donors, volunteers and members. Help us continue to empower students, parents and teachers today.

Not a Learning Ally member?

Get 20% off new membership by using code Together20 at registration.

Learn more and join today

Browse audiobook library

Parent support

Meet the parent support team

Learn about your Learning Ally support team

Personalized advice on raising a child with learning differences from parents, for parents. Learning Ally members can schedule a consultation online. Non-members, call (800) 635-1403.

5 Quick Tips for Organizing Your IEP Binder

Learning Ally's parent support specialists share pointers on keeping IEP binders tidy and organized this school year.

Upcoming Events

Register now for our September webinars and workshops

Event calendar
SUN	MON	TUE	WED	THU	FRI	SAT
	1	2	3	4	5	6
7	8	9	10	11	12	13
14	15	16	17	18	19	20
21	22	23	24	25	26	27
28	29	30	31

Facebook Twitter Instagram

Forward Subscribe YouTube

Subscription Options

- Update your subscription preferences.
- Unsubscribe to no longer receive emails from Learning Ally.
- Was this newsletter forwarded to you? Subscribe to receive your own copy.

Founded in 1948, Learning Ally is a national nonprofit serving students with learning and visual disabilities. The organization provides vital resources for parents; training and technology for educators; and 80,000 human-narrated textbooks for K-12 through higher ed. For more information, visit <http://LearningAlly.org>.

As a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization, Learning Ally benefits from the generous support of our donors, volunteers and members. If you want to join our growing donor family, please donate now.

Become a Learning Ally volunteer.

Address: 20 Roszel Road, Princeton, NJ 08540

Contact us by calling 800-221-4792

Copyright © 2015 Learning Ally. All rights reserved